MEETING CREEK

Last Friday evening a socialist meeting was held in town.

In former days the slogan used to be "Go west, my boy, go west." In our day it is "Go east, my boy, go east."

Next Sunday there will be English service here in the forenoon and in the afternoon Mr. Berg preaches in the Scandinavian language.

There was quite an exciting time in this vicinity Monday evening. A prairie fire was raging out west and a strong wind blowing from that direction brought the fire close to town. Every man went out and after backfiring succeeded in keeping the fire at bay.

The branch of the prohibition league formed here the evening of Mr. Fleming's address, held their first meeting Tuesday evening. The president is an earnest worker and everyone is greatly interested in this important work. Now is the time when all should join in this campaign against evil and "right not might" will soon hold sway if all do their utmost to drive the drink curse out of our fair province.

Quite a number from our little village and surrounding district motored to Dried Meat Lake on a fishing expedition. All report a splendid time.

Roy B. Camfield paid Camrose a flying visit the first part of the week.

We are proud of the stand the Canadian has taken in this campaign against the liquor curse. It takes manhood and backbone to come to the front and declare oneself against the liquor business that all too long has held sway in our country. Respectable people are thoroughly disgusted with some of the newspapers of today. For filthy lucre many papers are selling honor, forgetting that honor once parted with can not be repurchased. All endeavor made for the temperance cause has ennobled the one making the endeavor and all work for the saloon cause has degraded. Whether we win or lose we know we have labored for the right and some day right will win out.

July 29, 1915

MEETING CREEK

Mrs. C. Miltenberger and daughter Miss Amy are visiting in Wetaskiwin this week.

The young people of the Lutheran church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Larson last Friday evening. All report a very good time.

Meeting Creek district can certainly boast of lovely gardens. Many have ripe corn already and the tomatoes and cucumbers are very large. The Mardon Ranch, south of town, have cucumbers eight and nine inches long and [illegible] are ripening rapidly. We are certain that no district can surpass this one as far as grain, vegetables or flowers are concerned.

September 9, 1915

MEETING CREEK.

We are sorry that Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore and family are leaving for the States very shortly. Mr. Gilmore has been the blacksmith in our village for quite a while and has done excellent work. MEETING CREEK GETS NEW SETTLERS

Meeting Creek, March 28.—

The glorious spring weather we had a couple of weeks ago seems to have been driven away and a touch of winter has taken its place.

We are glad to learn that someone considers our district a good place to move to. It cheers us up after the dire predictions we have read or listened to and at times, we must confess, almost shared as to the future prospects of our country, to have to record that during the last few days Meeting Creek has had two bona fide immigrants. Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Underwood and family of Bristol, England, arrived in the district a few days ago. The Underwoods expect to make their future home here and are staying with Ed. Britton's until they have located a home of their own. Last Saturday afternoon Nels Alpson of Summit Lake, B.C., arrived in our vicinity. We understand that Mr. Alpson intends to purchase the G. Oberg farm, one mile south of town.

The Kin-Lar Ladies' Trio visited our village last Saturday evening. The ladies played to a very appreciative audience and, after the concert, they journeyed to Mardin Ranch where they spent Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Lawson.

Miss Luella Tiffany returned to her home last Saturday after a couple of weeks' visit with friends near Donalda.
